Hon. Ben L. Bruner

Secretary of State for Kentucky, Will Speak

This Evening at The Courthouse

In the interest of Taft and Sherman. Come out. You will hear one of the best speeches of the campaign.

Kentucky's new Capitol Building at Frankfort has been finished and it stands complete except the furnishings and the heating plant.

Mrs. Samuel Walker, aged 90 years, died in Bath county.

GEORGE W. VANTINE.

George W. Vantine, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Vantine, died at the home of his parents in Clifton at 6:30 this morning, after an illness of only three days with muscular rheumatism.

WILLIAM FRANCIS HAYS.

William Francis Hays, only child of Mrs. Fannie A. Hays, died in Lexington, Ky., Monday night at 10:30 o'clock of pneumonia. His death is a great shock and sorrow to a wide circle of relatives and friends who had hoped for his ultimate recovery from a nervous breakdown, which he suffered several years since, while in the active discharge of his duties as Superintendent of the Western Division of the General Electric Company at Cincinnati, O.

Will Hays, as he was called and known by a large circle of friends, was one of the most popular young men who ever lived in Covington. In both a social and business way he was held in the highest esteem. His bright and cheerful disposition, together with his many social gifts, made him a welcome member of any gathering or party wherever he went. In a business way his success was regarded as unusual by conservative business men of Cincinnati, who watched with interest and admiration his arrival at the top of the ladder in a way that reflected great credit on his efforts and untiring attention to his work, which, coupled with rare business acumen, placed him far ahead of most young men of his age. Much may be said of his untiring efforts in behalf of the company he represented and the successful outcome at whatever he turned his attention to do. Suffice it to say, however, that his honorable career is a credit to his name. He was a true friend, a devoted son and Christian, in every sense a gentleman of the highest type.

Wide-spread sympathy goes out to his mother, who is held in high regard by all who know her.

The funeral will occur Thursday morning at 11 o'clock from the Central Presbyterian Church. The Rev. W. W. Akers, Pastor of the Church, in conducting the services, will be assisted by Dr. Blackburn, Pastor of Mr. Hays' Church in Covington.

The pall-bearers will be Messrs. J. Foster Barbour, Judge G. S. Wall, Thomas A. Keith, Hiram P. Chenoweth and J. G. Wadsworth. The body will be laid to rest in the Maysville Cemetery in the lot owned by his family.

Our Colored Citizens.

Mr. James A. Munday, one of Maysville's bright and worthy young men, now in the Postal Service in the city of Chicago, was recently informed by Postmaster D. W. Campbell of that city that his salary had been increased from $800 to $900 per annum, effective October 1st, 1908. This is certainly cheering and gratifying news to his good old parents, who worked hard to give him an education fitting him for the position.

Sarah Clayton Washington of West Third street is in a critical condition resulting from cutting a corn. Her limbs and body became affected and swollen and blood poisoning is feared.

This is the last day for supplemental registration. Register today or you don't vote.

Mr. T. Kirk, one of Cincinnati's big tobacco buyers, was in the city yesterday looking up the tobacco trade.

Mr. Joseph Pamphries of Fleming county was in town yesterday and gave it as his opinion that Kehoe would carry Fleming by 100 majority. Joseph has another guess coming; too shoe is on the other foot.

The M. C. Russell Co. received a carload of Puget Sound canned salmon this morning, the freight on which amounted to $318.30. Mr. Russell considers the freight rate exceedingly cheap, having been shipped from Point Roberts, Washington.

In a jury trial before Squire John Boyer yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Martha Baldwin of Jersey Ridge was acquitted of a charge of letting stock run at large on the public highways. William Baldwin, for the same offense, was tried in the same Court and acquitted.

Dr. E. E. Underwood, a prominent colored man of Frankfort, addressed the Maysville Colored Taft Club last night at Bethel Baptist Church. There was a large crowd present and his speech was one of the best of the campaign. Hon. E. W. Lane made the speech of introduction.

The river is 4.4 and rising this morning. The steamer Greenland will be up tonight for Huntington and the Maysville and Cincinnati packet will resume her regular trips later in the week. The Robert Gillam passed down last night with a few coal flats and will return with a tow of empties.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. G. W. Pollitt entertained the U. R. K. of P. at her spacious home in West Front street last evening from 7:30 to 10:30. The event was a surprise celebration in honor of Mr. Pollitt's birthday and a greater surprise was never more perfect than this proved to Mr. Pollitt.

Twenty-five Knights of Pythias in uniform were present. Mrs. A. L. Perrant and Mrs. P. D. Wells assisted the hostess in receiving. Mrs. Luther C. Reynolds, Mrs. Lee, Miss Garnet Hauke and Miss Alene Ryder, with their pleasing manners and gracious smiles, added charm to the evening.

The double parlors and dining-room were beautifully decorated with K. P. colors—royal blue, yellow and red. These colors were artistically draped and festooned over chandeliers, mantles and folding doors. White lilies, the K. P. flower emblem, were profuse, too, both in parlors and dining-room.

The amusements of the evening were fully and enjoyably participated in. The first contest, "A Penny For Your Thoughts," was an oral guessing game. Mr. James Rasp, with his sharp wits, was the deserving winner of the prize—a handsome gold K. P. pin.

The next, "A K. P. Journey," was a written guessing game. Mr. Snapp and Mr. Rasp were ties in the contest, but Mr. Snapp drew the lucky slip and received the prize, a lovely hand-made sword case. After this Miss Hauke rendered some delightful selections on the piano, which received much applause.

Next the "lancing contest," which proved to be the happy climax of all the amusements. Mr. P. D. Wells, Mr. A. H. Hill, Mr. H. Stewart, Mr. Rasp, Mr. Pollitt and Mr. Thomas were close contestants. It finally fell between Mr. Rasp and Mr. Thomas to see which should win and Mr. Thomas came out victorious, winning for a prize a pretty hand-made sword case.

This ended the amusements and next they fled to the dining-room.

Mr. Wells gave a toast to Mr. Pollitt and all: "I consider Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the best of all laxatives." Mrs. Almon Willis, Jamaica, Vt., said: "I truly believe it saved my little boy's life." Rev. A. J. Fletcher, Rutherford, Tenn., says: "I am 89 years old and your Syrup Pepsin has cured me of dyspepsia and bowel trouble."

W. D. Jackson, Burns Station, Tenn., says: "I was afflicted with constipation and dyspepsia for nine years, and found no relief until I used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin." All druggists sell it at 50c and $1.50 per bottle.

We are glad to send a free sample to any reader of this paper who has never used it and will give it a fair trial. Write today to Pepsin Syrup Co., 303 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

COMMON COLDS

Become a serious matter if neglected. Bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, catarrh or consumption is the common result. Get rid of that cold at once by taking Williams' & Co.'s White Pine Cough Syrup. With it the most obstinate coughs yield to its grateful, soothing action, and to the rattling, persistent cough, often present in consumption, it gives prompt and sure relief. In fresh colds it is the remedy, breaking up the cold in a few hours and giving you a restful sleep. In the face of all these facts it is not a high priced remedy, but sells at 25c a bottle.
